Visegrad Folk Dance Gala in Kapuvár

Folk dancers of four nations will meet the audience at the St. Ann's Parish Feast weekend on 25th July. Kapuvár has organized the colourful traditional bustle with the financial assistance of the International Visegrad Fund. The ensembles of the Polish, Czech and Slovakian partner towns of the small Rábaköz town will present themselves.

"Igloopolanie" Folk Dance Group will represent Debica, Poland. Markovice, the Moravian traditional group will arrive from Jesenik, the Czech Republic. Megyer Dance Group from Nagymegyer, who are the masters of staging the Slovakian Hungarian traditional dancing and musical culture, will act for the present-day Slovakia. The dancers of the host's Kapuvár Folk Dance Group and their guests will perform as the cultural events of the parish feast programme at 4 p.m. on Saturday, 25th July.

After the performances dance house will be organized with the participating groups for the audience from 6 p.m. so anybody can learn the Polish Debica, or Jesenik Moravian dances. The programmes are free of charge.

Kapuvár thanks the International Visegrad Fund for contributing their support to the implementation of the programme.
