

The V4 Folk Dance Gala was a big success in Kapuvár

Visegrad Folk Dance Gala was held at St. Ann's Day Festivities and Equestrian Days in Kapuvár on 25th July, where the dance groups of the Polish and Czech partner towns of the Rábaköz town presented themselves. Kapuvár organized the colourful traditional bustle with the help of the International Beside the Kapuvár Folk Dance Group, Dance Groups from Jeseník Czech Republic and Debica Poland performed. After the performances Dance House was held.

During the programme which was organized with the help of the Visegrad Fund the Czech Markovice Group showed Moravian traditions, the Polish Igloopolanie Folk Dance Group performed polka, mazurka and polonaise dances.

Kapuvár works together with the Polish partner town Debica in the Association of Open European Towns, among other things they perform at each other's cultural events.

Jeseník and Kapuvár found each other with the contribution of the Czech Embassy some years ago. The two spa towns have lively cultural relations, their artistic groups take part in their cultural events several times yearly.

The St. Ann's Festivities and Equestrian Days started with the concert of Kárpátia Band on 24th July. On Saturday and Sunday craftsmen's market, children programmes and the shows of the local artistic and dance groups could be visited. In addition to these horse carriage competitions, horse show-jumping and skill competitions could be seen.

Thanks to the International Visegrad Fund for their support and contribution to the implementation of the programme.

The programmes were free of charge.
